

Catastrophic Cycling Accidents Compensation Claims***

We understand that riding a bicycle can be risky. Cycling accidents happen for a number of reasons. Some of these will entitle you to compensation. These cycling accidents can be caused by different types of circumstances including

- Defective road surfaces
- Adverse weather conditions
- Collision with a, car or truck
- Other road users ignoring traffic signals or road signs
- Other road users speeding
- Poor driving by other road users
- Other road users not giving sufficient space for cyclists

We are committed to securing the best possible outcome for your case even where liability may be in dispute, if you have been involved in a cycling accident.

Claiming for cycling injuries

Whether the injuries sustained during a cycling accident are minor or severe it is important that you get the rehabilitative treatment you need as soon as possible.

At Richard Grogan & Associates our Personal Injury Claim Solicitors understand what is involved in a cycling injury compensation claim. We know the importance of understanding the long-term physical, social and financial impact resulting from what can often be a very serious injury. We understand the needs of those who have sustained an injury as a result of a cycling accident from a legal, physical and psychological perspective and we progress compensation claims on that basis.

Unfortunately cycling injuries can include such matters as

- Brain injuries
- Spinal injuries
- Pelvic injuries
- Fractures
- Shoulder injuries
- Post traumatic disorder and other psychological reactions
- Amputations
- In the most serious of cases fatal injuries

How can we help?

If you or a loved has been injured while riding a bicycle you can call us to discuss any potential claim you have. We are a straight-talking firm. If we believe you have a good claim, we will tell you straight away. If we do not believe you have a good claim, we will equally tell you. Our job is to tell you sometimes what you need to hear not always what you want to hear. That means however you can trust us. If we tell you you have a good claim then we will not be telling you that unless we honestly believe that is the position.

There is no commitment to come and talk to us. We do not act in any cycling accident case unless we have agreed all terms and conditions with you. This includes not only the issues of the fees and costs involved but most importantly what services you will receive, what supports you will receive from us, how your case will be dealt with and, how it will be progressed.

If you would like to discuss any potential claim you or a loved one may have please call us on 01-9695781. You can email us at info@grogansolicitors.ie or you can submit your enquiry via our contact form.

We are here to help and will do our very best to provide you with the very best legal services we can for you.

*Before acting or refraining from acting on anything in this guide, legal advice should be sought from a solicitor.
