

Fatal Injury Claims***

Losing a loved one to a fatal injury we understand is the most traumatic event that anyone can experience. We understand that no amount of money can replace the loved one you have lost.

However, claiming compensation can allow you to ease the financial burden in what is a very difficult and challenging time in your life.

We understand that the law and compensation can never replace the loss. Our solicitors will handle the claim however with compassion and professionalism. The cause of death and the circumstances of the death will be investigated with tact and understanding.

How can we help?

In the event that a loved one is fatally injured in an accident the dependent family can claim against the party at fault for financial loss and dependency. We will handle matters in a sensitive way with compassion, understanding and professionalism.

We will guide you through the process. We will be very clear and very precise with you as to the strength of your claim but will at all times provide compassion, understanding and professionalism in all our dealings with you.

What type of accidents can cause a fatal injury?

These include

- Accidents at work
- Road traffic accidents
- Medical accidents
- Exposure to hazardous substances
- Accidents during events

If you have lost a loved one and believe you have a right to claim compensation then dealing with a solicitor who has specialist knowledge in the field of fatal injuries is essential.

This area of law can be complex and you need a team you can trust to make the progress as simple and stress free as possible. Of course, it is never going to be stress free. The loss of a loved one is never stress free but we will do our best to make sure that dealing with us is as stress free as is possible.
